

Andrew Wible
curriculum vitae

1977 Addison St.
Muskegon, MI 49441
(231)759-3352
Andy.wible@muskegoncc.edu

Education

Ph.D. Wayne State University, May 2000.
M.A. Ohio University, Philosophy, 1994.
B.A. Hanover College, Philosophy, 1992.

Areas of Specialization

Ethics
Applied Ethics
Epistemology

Areas of Competence

History of Philosophy (Ancient and Modern)
Philosophy of Science
Logic

Full-Time Teaching Appointments

Muskegon Community College, Full-Time Instructor, 2000-present.

Edited Book

Golf and Philosophy: Lessons from the Links, University of Kentucky Press, August 2010.

Papers Published

“It’s All on Sale: Marketing Ethics and the Perpetually Fooled” in The Journal of Business Ethics, forthcoming.

“Do College and University Administration Have the Right to Establish Faculty Dress Codes?” answered “no” in “The Dialogue” section of NEA’s Advocate, October 2009.

“Knobe, Side-Effects, and the Morally Good Business” in The Journal of Business Ethics, published Sept. 2008 on-line, February 2009 vol. 85, no. 1, printed version.

“Does Holding a PhD Does Make You a Better Teacher?” answered “yes” in “The Dialogue” section of NEA’s Advocate, August 2006.

“Do Community Colleges Always Try to Hire the Best?” in Community College Week, June 5, 2006.

“Gay Identity: What Do We Want?” in the 2006 Society for Lesbian and Gay Philosophy Newsletter.

“Extending the Moral Sphere” Midwest Connections for International/Intercultural Education, Fall 2003.

“The Impotence of the Nature/Nurture and Natural/Unnatural Distinctions Surrounding Homosexuality,” Moral Musings: A Journal of Social and Political Thought, (Oct 1999).

Book Reviews

Book Review of Richard Mohr’s The Long Arc of Justice: Lesbian and Gay Marriage, Equality, and Rights, in Ethics: An International Journal of Social Political and Legal Philosophy, Spring 2006.

Book Review of Raja Halwani’s Virtuous Liaisons: Care, Love, and Sex in Virtue Ethics, in the 2004 Summer APA LGBT Committee Newsletter and the Society for Lesbian and Gay Philosophy Newsletter.

Forthcoming Editorial Work

“A priori Knowledge” a module for Symposia: Readings in Philosophy 2nd ed., (Boston: Pearson Publishers), Forthcoming.

Papers Presented

“It’s All on Sale: Market Ethics and the Perpetually Fooled,” presented at the November 2009 Vincentian Colleges International Conference on Business Ethics.

“Knobe, Side-Effects, and the Good Business,” presented at the November 2007 Vincentian Colleges International Conference on Business Ethics.

“What Obligation does the LGBT Community Owe to HIV/AIDS Today—2007?” presented at the April 2007 Central Division of the American Philosophical Association Conference.

“Human Rights: The Concept and Its Justification” presented at the 2006 Michigan Society of Political Scientists annual meeting in Lansing Michigan.

“The Importance of the Facts in Ethics” presented at the 2006 Bi-annual American Association of Philosophy Teachers meeting.

“A Broader Look at Biomedical Ethics” presented at the 2006 meeting of the Midwest Institute of International/International Education.

“Gay Identity: What Do We Want?” presented in Dec. 2005 at the Eastern American Philosophical Association Conference.

“Responding to Sophisticated Moral Relativism” presented Dec. 2004 to the Philosophy Department and Philosophy Club at Grand Valley State University.

“Teaching Famine and the HIV Epidemic” presented at the 2004 Bi-annual American Association of Philosophy Teachers meeting.

“Ethical Issues Surrounding the HIV Epidemic in Southern Africa” presented at the 2004 meeting of the Midwest Institute of International/Intercultural Education.

“HIV and AIDS in Botswana, Swaziland, and South Africa: The Status, What Is Being Done and What Should Be Done” presented to faculty and students Sept. 2003 and at the Global Awareness Festival Nov. 2003.

“What We Should Infer from Disagreement in Ethics” presented at the 2002 International Society for Ethics Across the Curriculum meeting, and the 2003 LAND conference.

“The State of Graduate Students and the Job Market” presented at the 2001 meeting of the American Philosophical Association, Central Division.

“Inference to the Best Explanation vs. Induction,” presented at the 2000 meeting of the Michigan Academy of Science, Arts, and Letters.

"An Argument for Explanations as Arguments," a colloquium paper presented at the 1999 meeting of the American Philosophical Association, Pacific Division.

"Getting Rid of the Nature/Nurture and Natural/Unnatural Distinctions Surrounding Homosexuality," presented at the 1999 meeting of the Michigan Academy of Science, Arts, and Letters.

"Drowning the Already Sunk: Examining Robert Nozick's Theory of Sunk Costs," presented at the 1995 meeting of the Michigan Academy of Science, Arts, and Letters.

International Study Awards

Fulbright-Hays summer grant recipient to study ethical issues in Botswana, South Africa, and Swaziland, Summer 2003.

Doctoral Thesis

"No Experience Necessary: An A Priori Defense of Inference to the Best Explanation and Moral Realism." Bruce Russell, Chair, May 2000.

Masters Thesis

"The Effect of Moral Realism and Anti-Realism in Business Ethics"
Arthur Zucker, Chair, 1994.

Philosophy Courses Taught

Introduction to Logic
Critical Thinking
Introduction to Philosophy
Introduction to Ethics

Contemporary Moral Issues
Biomedical Ethics
Business Ethics
Environmental Ethics

Philosophy Courses Assisted

Critical Thinking
Introduction to Philosophy
Introduction to Ethics
Professional Ethics

Non-Philosophy Courses Taught

History of Western Political Thought
Introduction to Humanities

Other Teaching Positions

Wayne State University, Teaching Assistant, 1995-2000.
University of Detroit Mercy, Part Time Instructor, 2000.
Manchester College, Part Time Instructor, 1995-1999.
Wayne County Community College, Part Time Instructor, 1996-1998.
Wayne State University, Part Time Instructor, 1994-1995.
Ohio University, Teaching Assistant, 1993.
Washington State Community College, Part Time Instructor, 1993.

Awards

Travel Stipend Award Winner, APA, for Teaching Seminar, Summer 2000.
Travel Stipend Award Winner, APA Pacific Division 1999.
Rumble Dissertation Fellowship, Wayne State University 1998-1999.
The Applied and Professional Ethics Fellowship, Ohio University, 1993-1994.

Other Professional Experience

President, Muskegon Community College Faculty Association.
AAPA Committee for the Defense of the Professional Rights of Philosophers, 2009-Present.
Mercy Health Partners IRB 2008-present.
Hackly Hospital Ethics Committee Member, 2006-2009.
Co-chair for the Society for Gay and Lesbian Philosophy, 2005-Present.
Human Rights and Health Care Issue, seminar participant, MIIIE, Summer 2005.
Advisor to the Philosophy Club, Muskegon Community College, 2001-Present.
Advanced Graduate Teaching Seminar Participant, APA/AAPT, Summer 2000.
Graduate Student Council, Wayne State University 1997-1998
President: Philosophy Club, Wayne State University 1995-1997
Faculty Facilitator, Medical Ethics Seminar, Wayne State Medical School 1995-1997

References

Bruce Russell
Department of Philosophy
Wayne State University
51 W. Warren St.
Detroit, MI 48201
(313)577-6099

Susan Vineberg
Department of Philosophy
Wayne State University
(313)577-2537

Herbert Granger
Department of Philosophy
Wayne State University
(313) 577-6102

Richard Bett
Department of Philosophy
Johns Hopkins University
(410) 516-6863