

Hendrik Meijer Library - Upper Level Student Workers 2008

We are very fortunate to have great student workers from all over the world. They bring a wonderful diversity to our library and serve to enrich the staff, students and patrons. We hope this is an exciting learning experience for them as well. They all, regardless of their national heritage, provide a perspective that is appreciated on a daily basis.

