Bowling-MCCAA Championship hosted by Schoolcraft College

February 12 @ TBD

Women Win MCCA/Region XII Bowling Championship;

The MCC women's bowling team successfully defended its MCCA/Region XII Championship title on February 12 at Merri-Bowl Lanes in Livonia, MI. Both teams have qualified for the NJCAA national championship on Feb. 25-27 in Cheektowaga, NY.

"The women's team won it going away," said Coach Bill Bowen. "They had the lead after doubles and singles events and never relinquished it." The Jayhawks easily took top honors with 6,881 pins, followed by Schoolcraft with 6,516, Kirtland 5,210 and Wayne 4,325. MCC qualified for the NJCAA national championship on Feb. 25-27 in Cheektowaga, NY.

A trio of MCC women bowlers captured All-MCCA medalist honors: Nicole DePender (Oakridge HS), Shelby Castenholz (Ravenna HS) and Candace Sutter (North Branch HS). DePender was the all-events champion, repeated as the singles champion, and teamed with Sutter to take second in doubles. Castenholz took second in all-events, third in singles, and teamed with Alexis Carpenter (Central Lake HS) for third place in doubles. In addition to her doubles' second, Sutter took fourth in all-events and fifth in singles.
