The Jayhawks opened the 2017-18 season with a 3-2 loss to Lakeland Community College on Saturday. MCC had some early chances but found themselves down 2-0 at halftime. After another Lakeland score the Jayhawks were able to tally two second half goals but it wasn't enough to get the win in their home opener.

"We created a lot of chances in the second half but could only convert a few", said Head Coach Brent Kowalski after the game.

They return to the field Sunday when they host Cuyahoga Community College.
