

FERRIS DEFEATS MUSKEGON J. C.'S IN 2 OVERTIMES

Comeback of Ewing Crew Features 45 to 44 Game at Big Rapids

Big Rapids, March 10.—(Special)—Ferris Institute last night turned the tables on Muskegon Junior College in one of the most hotly contested games ever seen on the local floor. The visitors made almost superhuman efforts to win the game, and succeeded twice in tying the count at periods ended. The game went into two overtime periods before Ferris could win out 45 to 44.

Captain Norman McDonald, one of the stars of the season, shot the tying points with five seconds of the regular game to go. He stepped up to the foul line and dropped two free throws through the hoop to force the game into a 33 to 33 deadlock.

Then, with only three seconds to go of the first overtime, and with the timer's trigger finger about to pull the last gun, Hohenstein dropped a beautiful field basket through for two points to again tie the score at 33 to 33, and sent the game into a second overtime period.

With one point needed to win, Captain McDonald's last shot rimmed the basket as the last gun barked, and Muskegon had lost its third game of the season.

Captain McDonald with 16 points and Hohenstein with 17 points were high point men for the visitors. Driess led the local shooters with 16 points, while Young also starred.

J. C. CAGERS PRIMED FOR FERRIS BASKETTERS
Muskegon Jaysees left today for Big Rapids to meet the boys of Ferris Institute in a return game that finds the Muskies favored to win. The college team won an early season victory over Ferris, and will be favored tonight to repeat that victory.

J. C. QUINTET AND Y. M. C. A. TO MEET IN SEASON FINALE

Battle Probable for Next Week; Play Out of Town Games This Week

A game which has been brewing since the opening of the season, and especially since Muskegon Junior College and Muskegon Y. M. C. A. have stepped out late in the season for strings of victories, is being planned for next week as a finale of the season in Muskegon.

This week the two teams face tough out of town opposition. The games are declared warming-up battles for the home meeting of the two squads. Junior College plays at Big Rapids opposed to Ferris Institute. It is a return game, with Muskegon holding a victory early in the season to make it a favorite to come through with another victory. The game is scheduled for Friday night.

Muskegon Y has two trips away from home slated for the week. Thursday night the team travels to Kalamazoo to meet the Y team of that city in a "tossup" game. Muskegon won here in the first meeting after an overtime game, by a few points.

Saturday night Muskegon Y starts a campaign for Western Michigan A. A. U. laurels at Grand Rapids, in the tournament which is now progressing.

Two Muskegon teams have appeared in the Grand Rapids meet. The Heights Midgets defeated the Fountain Street Juniors 43 to 12 in a one-sided game. The Central M. E. Church league team, undefeated in league play here, lost to the Immanuel Lutherans of Grand Rapids in a hot game 44 to 25.

Several other Muskegon teams are entered in the tournament.

1ST ANNUAL GAME BETWEEN JAYSEES, Y SET FOR FRIDAY

Team Play Versus Individual Ability Issue in Central Campus Tilt

The first annual battle for Greater Muskegon senior basketball laurels will be held at the Central Campus gymnasium Friday night with the Muskegon Jaysees meeting the strong Y. M. C. A. aggregation.

The game is slated for 8:30 p. m., with a preliminary yet to be announced, set for 7:30 p. m.

Friday's game, postponed from tomorrow night because the Y team has to play in the Western Michigan A. A. U. tournament that night at Grand Rapids, will start a series of annual games between the college and Y teams, it is planned.

The outcome of the Friday game is doubtful, with the "dope" pointing to a fast, high scoring game. Muskegon Jaysees have the better team play. The Y squad is conceded the more brilliant individual stars. The game itself should develop into a test of team play versus flashy individuality.

The Y lineup will be composed of Paul Veysey and John "Smitty" Vanderplow at forwards, with John Sheldon and George Bohn as substitutes certain to get in the game. Herman Fischer at center, Bill McCall and John DeHorn at guards. Fischer will drop back to guard after the tipoffs. Bill Meeske, forward, will probably get into the Y lineup during the game.

The college will start its regular team, with Captain Norman McDonald at center, Rohwedder and Lambert at guards, Hohenstein and Hathaway at forwards.

Y TOSSERS TO MEET JAYSEES IN CAGE GAME

Local Classic Scheduled for Friday Night; Appear Well Matched

A basketball game that should approach the classic, has been slated for the Muskegon Y. M. C. A. gymnasium for Friday night. Muskegon Junior College and Y. M. C. teams, each with an impressive record for the season, will meet in a battle that has long been talked of among followers of the two squads.

The Jaysees have lost three games, one of them after two overtime periods. The Muskegon Y team has lost three games, and won a game in two overtime periods. Thus their records appear even, although the class of competition met cannot be compared as the same teams did not meet during the season.

All-Star Y Squad.

The college five is one that has taken basketball lessons under five coaches, and which has shown by its clever playing the result of that variety of tutoring. Lambert, Hathaway and Hohenstein started under J. F. Jacks at Muskegon High, although none made a first team. McDonald, Rohwedder were former pupils of C. Leo Redmond. Moss and Miles took their first lessons under Paul Meader at Muskegon Heights. Most of the team played last year under Fred Lewis, while this year Coach Ewing has welded the machine into a formidable attacking force.

The Muskegon Y squad, although better individually, is not a perfect team. The players have not fitted into a high scoring combination which C. Leo Redmond won a state championship with last year. The team lacks an outstanding center, which is perhaps the reason for the lack of team play which has dropped three games during the season.

Plenty of Coaching.

John "Smitty" Vanderplow, George Bohn, Bill Meeske and Paul Veysey are forwards to delight the heart of any coach. Bill McCall, Herman Fischer, John DeHorn are equally great guards. John Sheldon is a steady, persistent forward who has been worked at center, yet doesn't really play his best at that position. The team has been forced to send Fischer to center on tipoffs, and play three guards, leaving De Horn and McCall in the games.

A close, hard fought battle should result when the two teams meet. It should also be a money winner, for the squads have not enjoyed any exceptional patronage this year, and the proceeds, to be evenly divided, will go a long way towards making up the season's deficit for the two aggregations.
