      - The MCCA bylaws have been changed to allow membership to tribal colleges. Two of the three Michigan tribal colleges are interested in joining.

Brandy Johnson, MCCA President, pulled together a committee that has put together a 3+1 agreement. There is discussion of $56M in grants for community colleges to get these programs off the ground and running, which could be funded and passed with the final budget this year.
      - Dr. Crandall has been elected to the MCCA Executive Board.

   B. Foundation Update – Susan Foley, Interim Chief Advancement Officer, reported the Foundation is progressing, strengthening, growing, and handling some of the immediate necessities.
