Ellie Adams Becomes MCC's First Women's Soccer All-American

Ellie Adams has become Muskegon Community College's first women's soccer All-American after being named to the 2020-21 National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) Division II Women's Soccer All-America Second Team.

Adams, a 5-10 sophomore from Middleville, MI, played midfield for the MCC squad which tied for fifth in the nation at the NJCAA Div. II championships this spring. A graduate of Thornapple-Kellogg High School, she scored three goals and added eight assists for the Jayhawks.

"Since she arrived in our program as a freshman, she's been a difference maker," said MCC Head Coach Jeff Lohman, whose team posted a 9-3-1 record this year. "Ellie's soccer IQ and vision of the field are strong and allowed her to be an integral part of our team's successful back-to-back Region 12 championships."

Adams has signed to continue her collegiate soccer career this fall at NCAA Division II Tiffin University in Ohio.

Women's Soccer NJCAA National Tournament vs. #8 Waubensee Community College

June 5 @ 9:00 am - 11:00 am

Final
Muskegon Community College	2
Waubonsee Community College	2

The Muskegon Community College Jayhawks played the #8 seed Waubonsee Community College team to a 2-2 after two overtimes. MCC won the shootout 4-3 to earn the extra points in the pool play.

The two teams battle from the opening kick with MCC scoring first on a header from Lexi Bolles (Reeths-Puffer HS) off a corner kick from Sammy Hecht (Zeeland West). Waubonsee scored the next 2 goals and that stood up until about 7 minutes left in the game when MCC got the equalizer from Kendall Jones (Reeths-Puffer HS) on an impressive goal with an assist from Izzy Hammond (Ravenna HS). Neither team could find the back of the net in two overtimes, sending the game to a penalty kick shootout. Bolles, Hecht, Ellie Adams (Thornapple Kellogg HS) and Alexa Musk (Mona Shores HS) all converted their kicks. Rachel Wienclaw (Buckley HS) made an impressive save to secure the win.

The Jayhawks finished the season with a fine 9-3-1 record - their only losses coming from Division III National Champion Delta College and top ranked Phoenix College.

Women's Soccer NJCAA National Tournament vs. #1 Phoenix College

June 4 @ 9:00 am - 11:00 am

Final
Phoenix College	1
Muskegon Community College	0

Muskegon Community College battled #1 seed Phoenix College before losing on a late goal by Phoenix for a final score of 1-0.

The Jayhawk's defensive strategy against the talented Bears almost worked, led by goalie Rachel Weinclaw's (Buckley HS) 11 saves. The two teams played to a 0-0 score until the 85-minute mark when Phoenix scored the game winner. Wienclaw was named "Player of the Match" as she played an outstanding game in goal for the Jayhawks.

MCC plays #8 Waubonsee CC in pool play June 5.

Women's Soccer NJCAA Region XII Finals vs. Jackson College

May 25 @ 12:00 pm - 2:00 pm

Final
